HRED THE CALL

BY LIEUT. BARNES. Tunn-The Dying New

Hark, the Saviour's value from Heaves Speaks a perion bull and free, Come, and thou shall be forgiven, Through My blood from Calvary."

Oh, the Saviour, hiessed Saviour, He did die upon the tree.

That the world might have Salvation,
Yes, that all might pardoned be.

See the healing fountain springing
From the Sa viour on the :ree,
Pardon, peace and cleansin; bringing,
Through His Blood from Culvary.

Hear the love and marcy spraking.
"Come and Lay thy soil on Mo."
Though thy heart with aim be breaking.
I have rest and peace for thee,"

Sinasr, come to Jesus flying From thy sin and woo be ree. Burdened, guilty, wounded dying, Gladly will He walcome thee.

Every sin shall be forgiven.
Then through grace a child shalt be,
Child of Ged and heir of Heaven,
Through His blood from Calvary.

There in love forever dwelling.

Jasus all thy sour shall be Nee, thy songs shall be, All his mercy done for thee.

TH MAPPY NOW.

CAPT. PORMAN.

Touz-We'er going home to glory. There is a song I love to sing Tis ginry to my sonl, Of my Redeemer, Saviour, King, Whose blood has made me whole.

I'm happy now, I'm happy now,
My sina are weshed away;
To please the Lord Is my delight,
I'll serve Him every day.

Tie glary to my soul to knnw My sine are washed away.
I have a title clear for heaven;
I'm bound for andless day.

Ch. kiorious naws (Oh. blessed sonne Repeat it o'ar and o'er. A loving Saviner I have found; Pil praise Him more and mure.

Let every sinner in the world.
Let overy sinner in the world.
Let over the Saviour fall.
There's mercy with the Lord of Leeds.
There we below new for all.

Armad by God, my Pather's strangth, I will live from day to day, Knowing of myself I'd fail, But He'll keep me in the way.

5 WHY WE WEAR THE UNI-FORM.

BY ROBT. J. CARTLON. Tonn-I'm saced and happy on Monday.

I meet with ordices everywhere,
In almost syery form,
In almost syery form,
In almost syery form,
The almost syery form,
The Army uniform.
They are that the initial should be known
Without Salyation hadges.
Hop known not why we put them on,
Xet hasten to condemn us.

сновуя. Then wear the uniform Monday, etc., Yee, wear it the whois week through.

We want it the whols week
We want the uniform became
It speaks when we can not,
It silent observed the form the fallow
Before the load in brought;
It keeps us for the fashions,
Separetes us from the world,
From dane of vice af bars us,
Where Jesus is ignored.

Where Jesus is ignored.

The clergy has a uniform
In each and overy seet,
Any when the Army puts one en,
Any when the Army puts one en,
Any when the Army puts one en,
We're fighting why thay object.
We're fighting her when may ay,
We'll don the ableid and d.
For God in the great d.

BOLINESS SONG.

BY CAPT. J. C. LUDGATE. Tunn-Take all my sine sway. Oh, Jesus Lerd, my conl's desire, Come now icto my longing heart Oh purge me cow with hely fire, To me Thycell impart.

[Repeat last two lines of each verse for chores.]

From all mboly things make free.
From Selfishness just now cleanse;
Take out the roots ol laired sin.
Come Then and dwall within.

Oh save me from the carnal mind, And perfect me in love divine, That I may in Thine image shine, And live alone for Thea.

If Thou dost come and fill my heart, Unboly thoughte must then depart; Thy will aloue my joy shall be, Thy life be lived in me.

I cake Thee Lord for all I need.
For hedy, noul, and earthly good on guide me hourly, Lord, I plead, and keep me pure and good.
